THE NIGHTINGALE PLEDGE

"I solemnly pledge myself before God and in the presence of this assembly to pass my life in purity and to practice my profession faithfully. I will abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous, and will do all in my power to elevate the standard of my profession. And I will hold in confidence all personal matter committed to my keeping, and all family affairs coming to my knowledge in the practice of my profession. With loyalty will I endeavor to aid the physician in his work. And devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care."

DEDICATION

MISS RUTH CALLAWAY PANNILL, R.N.
Johnston-Willis Hospital, Richmond, Virginia
and
University of Virginia

PROUDLY WE DEDICATE THIS 1949 EPITOME TO A GREAT NURSE AND WONDERFUL PERSON. IT WAS SHE WHO GUIDED US OVER OUR FIRST MONTHS AT JAMES WALKER, TEACHING AND INSPIRING US TO UPHOLD THE HIGHEST STANDARDS OF NURSING ETHICS. WE SHALL ALWAYS REMEMBER HER AND HER TEACHINGS THROUGH OUR NURSING CAREER AND SHALL ENDEAVOR TO AID HUMANITY AS SHE IS DOING.

IN LOVING MEMORY

W. HOUSTON MOORE, M. D.

Dr. W. Houston Moore was born August 30, 1880. A well known and beloved physician who spent most of his medical career as an obstetrician. When his health failed, five years prior to his death, he specialized in dermatology. For seven years he served on the State Board of Medical Examiners of North Carolina. He was also a member of the American Medical Association and the New Hanover Medical Society. His hobby and greatest outside interest was Greenfield Park, and the annual Azalea Festival. After finishing his service to God and man, quietly and peacefully he slipped away on July 23, 1948.

MISS CLARA LOUISE WRIGHT, R.N.

To Miss Clara Louise Wright, onetime President of the Texas League of Nursing Education, we wish to express with all our hearts our appreciation for her. She was an example of our profession with the highest honors and awards. Words can never express how her life, individually and professionally, influenced us and made us what we are today.

Miss Wright first came to James Walker as director of Nurses on July 1, 1944, and was loved and honored by everyone. After resigning on September 5, 1946, she returned to New Jersey, where after a long illness she passed away April 13, 1947.

Not the end, but just the beginning!

BECAUSE

*Because we came with a willing heart,
Because we pledged and did our part,
Because we learned when to work, when to play,
That's why we are R.N.'s today.*

*Because we were loyal and faithful and true,
Because with eagerness we accepted the new,
Because from our duties we never dared stray,
That's why we are R.N.'s today.*

*Because we brought new hope to the despaired,
Because their problems with them we shared,
Because we helped to banish dismay,
That's why we are R.N.'s today.*

*Because the newborn we mothered with care,
Because the senile whimsies we'd share,
Because we were "angels" in white array,
That's why we are R.N.'s today.*

*Because to the suffering we brought relief,
Because for their loved ones we alleviated grief,
Because for the dying we stopped to pray,
That's why we are R.N.'s today.*

*Because for the blind and the lame we'd write,
Because we made their days grow bright,
Because great tribute to them we'd pay,
That's why we are R.N.'s today.*

*Because we've lived through terror and strife,
Because on our skill depended a life,
Because we gave and sought no pay,
That's why we are R.N.'s today.*

*Because together we laughed and we cried,
Because together our obstacle we defied,
Because together we worked all the way,
That's why we are R.N.'s today.*

CLASS HISTORY

*Coping with studies,
Trembling with fear,
Eager to be noticed,
So began our first year.*

As we, the preclinicals of 1945, walked the halls of good old James Walker, we were very proud to be here. There were twenty of us, very shy and eager to learn. The classes were very heavy but they did not interfere with our midnight snacks and occasional showers with the fire extinguisher.

As days and weeks passed we lost many of our classmates. Some entered fields of matrimony while others went into the business world.

At the end of our six months' period we were invited to the office where we waited eagerly to be interviewed. We were told that we had been accepted in this school of nursing. A few days later we were planning our capping exercises. That was a very exciting night for all of us. Miss Britt and Miss Goff presented us with our white caps. That was the beginning of our training, and much loved three to eleven.

We were very proud to be asked to dress the Christmas tree that year. We had a nice program and lots of fun at the party. The next morning we were awakened by girls running up and down the hall burning sparklers, which we had purchased from Taylors Fireworks.

*And now that we're older
And know a few ropes
This year will be easier,
Thought we Juniors, full of hopes.*

In our junior year we were settled enough to think about class officers. Joyce Hall was elected our President. Our class sponsors were Dr. Robertson and Miss Yount. They have been wonderful to us. One of our important events was the trip to Brookgreen Gardens in South Carolina.

We were very excited making plans for our banquet, which turned out to be a very enjoyable evening. We were very proud of our corsages of carnations received from Dr. Robertson for this event.

*Trying to be dignified
While walking our last mile,
Thanking James Walker for three glorious years,
We seniors depart with a tear and a smile.*

Gee! but time flies. We have received our senior bands, and have begun to realize that our responsibilities are increasing. We were eager to receive any new ideas for our annual. Mr. Messick, our Business Advisor, is to be greatly appreciated by the Senior Class for his help in making this annual possible. Our biggest financial source was selling ads and Christmas cards, but the one we enjoyed most was raffling cakes.

When we think of parting it is such sweet sorrow, but as we think of what is in store for us it is easier. We want to thank everyone who helped us while we struggled through these years.

We shall endeavor to hold fast to the knowledge we have obtained and high standards of our profession. So here's to our future! May we reach our goal for which we have long strived.

ELEANOR REESE
Historian

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

State of North Carolina
County of New Hanover
City of Wilmington
James Walker Memorial Hospital

We, the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Forty-Nine, being of sound mind and body, do individually and collectively will and bequeath our most highly prized possessions to those dear friends we leave behind at dear old J.W.M.H.

ARTICLE I

To our parents and friends we wish to express our heartiest thanks, undying love and memory for believing in us and helping us to achieve our goal.

ARTICLE II

Section 1. To Miss Masten we leave our sincere appreciation for all she has done to make the way a little brighter and all the many things she has done to help us to be good nurses.

Section 2. To Miss Britt we leave our love and gratitude for the faith she has had in us and hope that we will never let her down.

Section 3. To the doctors, our thanks for helping us and the patience and understanding they have shown us.

Section 4. To the Supervisors we express our gratitude for the patience they have had with us and the sympathy they have shown in regards to our mistakes.

ARTICLE III

Section 1. To the Preclinicals we leave our ability to "apple polish" the housemothers in hopes that they will get by as easily as we have done, by this honorable method.

Section 2. To the Freshmen we bequeath our midnight jam sessions in hopes that they will have as much fun as we have had.

Section 3. To the Juniors and Seniors of 1950 we leave our special privileges in hopes that they will make good use of them as we have.

ARTICLE IV

Section 1. Hilda Hearn leaves her ability to get excited to Helen Bradham in hopes that it will make her as popular as "Pee Wee." She leaves her love for the "Mendota" to whoever can administer the necessary "TLC" to her boys.

Section 2. Rebecca Dellinger leaves her dignity and professional attitude to Ruth Wolf and Mikkie Winborn. She leaves her love for Turkey, N. C., to Helen Daniels.

Section 3. Billie Ward leaves Dr. K. to whoever can quote poetry to him and comfort him in his moments of despondency.

Section 4. Joyce Hall leaves her love for Maternity to Blanche Burris and Edna Walker in hopes that they will develop that maternal instinct as she has done.

Section 5. Eleanor Reese wills her love for food to Enid Atkinson.

Section 6. Evelyn Page leaves her many loves to Hilda Covil.

Section 7. Lillian Adams leaves her faithfulness to one man to Jane Galloway and Christine Eubanks.

Section 8. Hazel White leaves two inches of her height to Ruth Lanier and Caryway Merritt.

Section 9. Frances Sparks leaves her ability to stay neat and clean and her snow white shoes to Marie Moore.

Section 10. I, Laura Taylor, leave my moods behind me in hopes that the future holds much happiness for the "Big Ten." I leave Posey to Dot Conway in hopes that she can reform him as I never could.

CLASS PROPHECY

By MADAME PEE WEE

Girls, this looks bright to me. Here's a note at the top of the bowl which says, "Get what you want and pay for it."

Dellie, my girl, I can see great things in the future for you. You in your nursery singing a sweet little lullaby to a tiny little bundle. But before this bundle you will have a very successful life in obstetrics, where you will find your Doctor McGee.

Joyce and Lill, your date of graduation won't be too soon. You already can hear those bells ringing. And they don't sound like they are ringing just for church. It couldn't be that Elwood and Robert can hear the same ones too. (Could be.)

Sparkie, you are a good girl. By saying just what you think to all these sweet doctors around here. I can just see that sign on your door come true:

SUPERINTENDENT OF NURSES!

You, White, I see many of your rich patients and doctor's sons returning that Pepsodent smile. You will go a long way and see our dear old Alma Mater grow in many ways.

Page, dear, anyone could just look in your face and see the typical, nice, neat old maid, but it looks as if The Basin is going to change things. Maybe your looks. Who knows? Yes, here is 7-3 private duty in Southern Pines.

Taylor, Reese, and Ward, you are as changeable as the breeze. When and if we get that R.N. attached to our names. Let's just be gypsies. See wide open spaces and love 'em and leave 'em.

Myself, I think I'll join the three gypsies who are going to travel. I think four would make a nice tribe. If?????? George, Doug, Ben and John don't interfere. We might could cruise by Hartford, Conn., Cuba, Raleigh, and the Sound.

Better not look any further. I might see something.

Dr. Doshier walked quietly and professionally down the hall.

Dr. Koonce had lost his sense of humor.

Miss Britt gave out bedpans on maternity.

Dr. Robertson was very loud and noisy.

Dr. Johnson without his cigar.

Dr. Wilson did a hysterectomy.

Dr. Graham has a patient on O.B.

Dr. Lounsbury did not quiz the student.

Dr. Walker did not flirt with the nurses.

Dr. Codington didn't say "gently" during an operation.

Dr. Fred Barefoot walked noisily down the hall.

Miss Ashworth didn't help Dr. Hare in Cysto.

Dr. McEachern didn't tell any "tall tales."

Dr. Murchison talked in a very soft tone.

Dr. Crouch, Jr., didn't ask about "the lil fellow."

Dr. Hall didn't get the birth certificate.

Dr. Smith refused to do a frozen section.

Dr. H. W. Johnson didn't stop to chat.

Dr. Knox didn't have his stethoscope.

Dr. Powell stormed at the nurses.

Dr. Koseruba didn't say "How's every little thing?"

Dr. Hooper whistled at the nurses.

Dr. Thompson refused to use white cotton in surgery.

Dr. Warshauer has taken up surgery.

Dr. Anderson forgot his instruments.
